Tom got off the train and as the train left, he realised he was holding the wrong suitcase. Tom was looking around while thinking of what he should do. The station was incredibly big, no chance to find the train, he was travelling in, even when it's arrived. Fortunately, Tom had his phone with him so he could phone his mom or friends for an advice. First, Tom tried to recognise the person, whose suitcase he was holding.

He opened it and was shocked. It was his old friend's <sup>le</sup> suitcase ~~called~~ Larry.

Tom realised that it will be quite easy to get his suitcase back and <sup>le</sup> was so happy. He phoned Larry's mother to ask where Larry <sup>was</sup> travelling. It turned out, now Larry should be at the same station. After about half an hour, Tom found Larry and gave him his suitcase. But Tom wasn't really happy, because his suitcase <sup>was</sup> in the train, which had left about an hour ago. Larry told Tom to wait until that train arrives <sup>le</sup> again and then try to find it. But suddenly Tom's phone <sup>has</sup> rang. <sup>He</sup> This person told Tom where he should go to find his suitcase. Tom was that happy, he <sup>id</sup> even forgot ~~to~~ say "Goodbye" to Larry and ran to this address.
