Bees, bees, bees

Most people enjoy seeing bees in gardens and parks, but it can be scary when they're flying together in large numbers, and it can be even more frightening if they come a bit too close!

A few years ago, Lisa Turnbull was in her home in York. She had made a cake and left it on the kitchen table. She was looking forward to eating it, but when she opened the kitchen window to help the cake cool more quickly, she unfortunately didn't notice the large number of bees flying around in her back garden. A few minutes later, Lisa heard a loud noise coming from her kitchen. She opened the door and saw a huge swarm of bees all over her kitchen table. The bees had left their old home and were looking for a new one. It seems that the queen bee, which controls all the others, had fancied a bit of cake and landed on it. She was followed by 15,000 others! Luckily, Lisa knew a bit about bees, so she knew they weren't dangerous and she didn't need to be afraid. She calmly closed the door and called a local beekeeper who found the situation very amusing and took the bees away. Although her cake wasn't badly damaged, Lisa didn't fancy eating it!

Last summer, John Norton from Manchester had a similar experience with a large number of bees. He was driving home after a long day at work when he noticed thousands of insects following his car. He realised after a while that they were bees and stopped his car, hoping that they would continue flying on and leave him in peace. However, when he stopped the car they landed on the back of it and stayed there. Feeling rather nervous, John used his phone to look online and find the phone number of a local beekeeper. John called him, and the beekeeper arrived half an hour later. It turned out that the queen bee had flown into the boot of the car while John was putting some shopping into it. When he closed the boot, she was stuck inside, so when he drove off, the rest of the bees followed. They somehow knew where their queen was even though they couldn't see her. John stayed in his car and didn't get out until the beekeeper had safely removed all the bees – which took over three hours! That's a good excuse for being late home!

Task 2. Read the text and the questions (21-25) below. For each question, choose the correct letter A, B, C or D.

A hotel under the sea

Want to sleep under the sea? The company Planet Ocean has plans for an exciting underwater hotel, which they hope to build in locations all over the world. The hotel won't be large, with only 12 guest rooms, plus a restaurant. Guests will get to the hotel in a lift – so no diving or getting wet! The hotel will float 10 metres under the ocean, although it will be attached to the sea bed to prevent it from moving too far. Because it won't be very deep under the water, the sun will shine down and provide light. Guests will get great close-up views of the fish and other sea creatures, which won't be bothered by the hotel and so won't make any effort to avoid it.

The hotel's design, with walls made of clear plastic, means that when you are in your room, you will see the sea in front of you, behind you, above and below you. You will almost get the feeling that you are swimming in the ocean. The luxury rooms will have excellent facilities, including a shower, TV and even the Internet. The restaurant will serve high quality meals. However, Planet Ocean want to encourage people to eat less fish, so you won't find any on the menu. The atmosphere will be completely silent though, so you will have to imagine the sound of the ocean around you.

The hotel won't be cheap to build, and it won't be cheap to stay in. But the designers are especially proud of the fact that it will be environmentally friendly. It will use electricity, of course, but it will produce its own, and won't disturb ocean life at all. In fact, the designers hope some sea creatures will build their homes on parts of the building, which will bring real benefits to the underwater world.

21. What is the writer doing in this text?

- ☒ A advertising a new kind of luxury hotel
- ☐ B warning people about environmental problems in the ocean
- ☐ C giving information about an underwater hotel
- ☐ D giving advice to travellers on which hotels to choose

22. What do we learn about the hotel?

- ☐ A Guests will have to swim down to get to it.
- ☐ B Its lights will shine into the sea so guests can see the fish.
- ☒ C It will only have a small number of rooms.
- ☐ D Fish and other sea creatures will be scared of it.

23. What can guests do in the hotel?

- ☐ A swim out into the ocean
- ☒ B watch the ocean life near the hotel
- ☐ C enjoy a meal of freshly caught fish
- ☐ D hear the ocean as they go to sleep

24. What is the best thing about the hotel, according to the designers?

- ☐ A It won't cost much to build.
- ☐ B It won't use much electricity.

☒ C It won't cause any damage to the environment.

☐ D Fish and other sea creatures won't come very close to it.

25. What might a guest in this hotel say?

☐ A It's very expensive, but the facilities are quite basic and the windows are too small to see outside.

☒ B It's great to stay in such a beautiful hotel that is also good for the planet.

☐ C Seeing the fish up close is amazing, but it's a shame that the hotel disturbs sea life.

☐ D It's a great idea, and I love the fact that it can move around and travel to different locations.
